

Online Workshop Agenda

New technologies and the society

New governance, institutions & social cohesion

Sept 22, 2020, 3:45 - 5:15 pm CET

3:45 pm Welcoming remarks

Dr. Laura Sophie Dornheim, Digital Strategist and Activist (chair)

Dr. Florian Ranft, Head of Economic and Social Transformation, Das Progressive Zentrum

3:50 pm Opening keynote remarks

Prof. Dr. Beth Simone Noveck, New Jersey's Chief Innovation Officer, member of Germany's Digital Council, Director of the Governance Lab and author of "Smart Citizens, Smarter State"

4:00 pm Political keynote

Dr. Markus Richter, State Secretary at the Federal Ministry of the Interior, Building and Community and Federal Government Commissioner for Information Technology

4:10 pm Q&A with workshop participants

4:25 pm Lightning shots: practice-based examples from Spain and Finland

Michael Donaldson, Technology Officer, and CIO, Barcelona City Council and Ossi Korhonen, Consultant, Demos Helsinki

4:35 pm Breakout-Sessions

- I. Which concepts of a modern and digital state can promote trust and social cohesion?
- II. What are good (or bad) examples of new technologies in a modern and digital state?
- III. What are visions of a modern and digital state that serves the interest of its citizens?

5:05 pm Presentation of group work results in plenary

5:15 pm Closure